
Data Protection Declaration

Declaration in accordance with the duty to provide information (Privacy Policy)

The protection of your personal data is of particular concern to us. We therefore process your data exclusively on the basis of the legal regulations (DSGVO, TKG 2003). In the following document we would like to inform you about the most important aspects of data processing on our website.

Contact with us

If you contact us using the form on our website or by e-mail, the data you provide will be stored with us for six months for the purpose of processing your enquiry and in the event of follow-up questions. We will not pass on this data without your consent.

Cookies

Our website uses so-called cookies. These are small text files that are stored on your mobile device using the browser. These files will not do any damage.

We use cookies to make our website user-friendly. Some cookies remain stored on your device until you delete them. They enable us to recognize your browser the next time you visit us.

If you do not wish this, you can set your browser so that it informs you whenever cookies may be stored, and you can choose only to allow this in specific cases.

When cookies are deactivated, the functionality of our website may be limited.

Newsletter

You have the possibility to subscribe to our newsletter via our website. For this we need your e-mail address and your declaration that you agree to receive the newsletter.

As soon as you have registered for the newsletter, we will send you a confirmation e-mail with a link to confirm your registration.

You can cancel your subscription to the newsletter at any time. Please send your cancellation to the following e-mail address: office@uptime-engineering.com. We will immediately delete any of your data that has been stored in relation to the sending of the newsletter.

Your Rights

In principle, you are entitled to information, correction, deletion, restriction, data transferability, revocation and objection. If you believe that the processing of your data violates data protection law or your data protection claims have otherwise been violated in any way, you can complain to the supervisory authority. In Austria, this is the Data Protection Authority ("Datenschutzbehörde").
